

GETTING THE WORD OUT

a writing seminar with author Bill Conall

St. Ann's Bay Health Centre, Indian Brook Fire Hall, October 7, 14 and 21, 1:00 - 4:00 p.m.

The three-part seminar is designed for the participants based on their responses to a detailed pre-workshop questionnaire.

Writers at all levels and in all genres are welcome.

Sessions will focus on the process of writing: story ideas (fiction and non-fiction), characters, plot, incorporating humour and pathos, establishing a bond between readers and characters, giving and receiving feedback, polishing your work.

And yes, Virginia, there will be homework.

To register, contact co-ordinator Penny Steele at 902-929-2324 or penny@cabottrailart.com.

Bill Conall's fiction has been published in several Canadian periodicals and the anthologies ShoreLines, The Men's Breakfast, Thirteen Ways From Sunday and Local Hero. He is the winner of the 2014 Stephen Leacock Medal for Humour for his second book, The Promised Land - a novel of Cape Breton

Presented by the St. Ann's Bay Health Centre Society as part of the Community Arts Connection
